LOGO SIGNATURE

The Qlik signature logo is comprised of two main pieces—the logotype and brandmark. These elements must always remain locked up as shown, and must never be placed as individual pieces or adjusted. The only exception to this is at extremely small scales, as shown on the following page.

LOGO COLORS

Qlik Gray and Qlik Green are the primary colors used in the full-color signature logo. Do not substitute other colors or combinations. Be sure to use the correct color breakdowns for the intended color space, i.e., do not use CMYK colors (intended for print) when the logo is appearing on screens (RGB/Web colors).

The Qlik Logo — Clear Space

LOGO CLEAR SPACE GUIDELINES

All Qlik logotypes need to retain ample “clear space” so our brand identity is clear, distinct, and legible from other design elements. The clear space for the Qlik logo is equal to the height of the “Q” in the wordmark (please reference the chart).

Do not place messaging or graphics under, touching, or too close to the Qlik logo.

Always maintain the minimum clear space, even when proportionally scaling the logo.

The minimum height of the full logo is 0.125 inches for print and 9 pixels for digital applications. For any sizes under these values, use the logomark only.

 < 0.125” / 9px

Use Logomark if under 0.125” or 9 pixels

PRODUCT TYPEMARKS

As of September 1, 2019, the Qlik product typemarks have been retired. Only the Qlik master logo may be using in printed and digital materials - all typemarks should be removed

The discontinuation of the product typemarks was a strategic decision to help foster more brand awareness and provide clarity in the market as a single solution: Qlik.
